STEPS TO PREVENT COAL FAMINE IN N. E.

Special to The Sun
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 20.—That the government will take over the coal shipments and take a hand in fixing prices seems probable. As stated exclusively in The Sun of Saturday, the president has yielded to the urgent insistence of senators from the west and from New England and has arranged that Judge Lovett of the war department shall assume charge of all priority shipments in the hope of bringing about an equitable distribution of coal. Senators Weeks of Massachusetts, Hale of Maine and Hollis of New Hampshire had been especially insistent that the needs of New England were such that great hardship would result unless matters were quickly adjusted and they put the matter very strongly before the president. The federal trade commission and the shipping board, within 48 hours after their last interview with the president, he had taken definite action. Western senators and the war boards also asked his intervention in behalf of their states, but New England men did much effective work.

An effort will be made to bring about lower rates, but the priority question is regarded as the hardest question to solve. Two laws on the statute books give the president full authority to act and he has turned over those powers to Judge Lovett. The trade commission is said to have a plan mapped out whereby fixing prices for government operation and commandeering in case mines refuse to sell their output at the prices fixed. Under the added power recently vested in the president he is given authority to control the shipment and distribution of coal and its apportionment.

New England Suffers
The northeastern states and New England have been the greatest sufferers under the existing shortage and a coal famine threatens both those sections unless some remedy is quickly devised. President Wilson paid personal visits to the offices of the trade commission, the food commission and the attorney general before making his assignment as priority distributor. It is not known just what course the president will pursue to fix prices and provide for adequate distribution, but both railroads and coastwise vessels will be needed, and it is thought that the commandeering of coastwise vessels used in the New England trade and tugs used on the Great Lakes will be lessened. Even representatives of coal operators admit that there will be a shortage this winter. It is stated that the president has three courses of action open to him. Under the food act he may fix prices at the mines and to consumers. He may direct some government agency to requisition the entire output of all mines, selling it to the public. He may enter into a voluntary agreement with operators to sell at a fair price, with the government directing all distributions. There is a rumor here that the president will direct the requisition of all coal mined, and it is also rumored that this plan is the one endorsed by the trade commission. Under this arrangement the government—through Judge Lovett—would control shipments, distribution and apportionment. Each of the proposed plans would require the working out of tremendous detail and at this moment it is impossible to say what plan will be decided on. One thing is certain, the government has already taken the first step towards averting a coal famine and New England will have its share of whatever is regarded as adequate by Judge Lovett as priority distributor.

CONSTANTINE'S REPLY TO THE KASIER

LONDON, Aug. 20.—An Athens despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company says that among the diplomatic documents found in Athens since the change in government is a despatch of former King Constantine, written a few days after the war began, in response to a message from Emperor William, who proposed Greece should range herself on the side of the central powers. Constantine said in his reply:

"The emperor well knows my personal sympathies, as well as my political opinions, attract me to his side. Nevertheless, it is impossible for me to understand in what manner I could be useful to him in mobilizing my army. The Mediterranean is at the mercy of the united fleets of England and France which could destroy our navy and merchant marine, occupy our island and above all prevent concentration of my army which could be effected only by sea. In the absence of railway communications. Without it being in our power to be useful in any particular, we would be wiped off the map. I am necessarily of the opinion that neutrality is imposed upon us."

Gottlieb von Jagow, then German foreign secretary, replied to Constantine that Emperor William would understand the necessity of maintaining neutrality for the present. He advised Constantine to reach an understanding with Sofia and Constantinople.

U. S. WILL BUILD MORE DESTROYERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Immediate expansion of building facilities of the United States to double or treble the output of destroyers during the next 18 months was the object of a conference today between Secretary Daniels and representatives of 25 or more ship and engine builders.

"If we got what we want," the secretary said, "the United States will have more destroyers than any other power. They are the one thing that a submarine fears."

NEW SUPERIOR AT ST. MICHAEL'S

St. Michael's parochial school, in Centralville, will open its coming school year with a new superior, Rev. Sister Mary William having been appointed to succeed Rev. Sister Alexia. The latter was one of the original four nuns who opened the school 26 years ago and had been connected with it 18 years out of the 26, a great part of the time as superior. She will have charge of a large parochial school in Louisville, Ky. Sister Mary William, the new superior, is a niece of Monsignor William O'Brien, P.R., of St. Patrick's church, this city. The friends of the school will be pleased to learn that Sister Mary of Sienna, who for many years taught the highest grade at St. Michael's, is expected to return this fall after a 10-month absence. Sister Christiana will be the music teacher and this will be her first time in Lowell.

On Sept. 10 the Dominican sisters, with the approval of the cardinal, will open a select school for small boys at St. Dominic's academy, in Waverley, Mass., which has been closed for the past two years, pending the construction of an extensive addition to the original building.

Catholic Notes
The usual masses were celebrated in all the Catholic churches of the city yesterday. Yesterday was the regular monthly communion Sunday for a number of societies in the different churches.

The Boys' sodality received communion at the children's mass at St. Peter's church yesterday morning. The girls of the parish will receive communion next Sunday. The early mass at 7:30 a.m. was presided over by Rev. Daniel J. Keleher, P.R. The 10 o'clock mass was celebrated by Rev. Daniel J. Keleher, who preached a strong sermon on the gospel of the day which narrated the incident in which Christ was asked, what we must do to gain eternal life. He answered, "Keep the commandments." The preacher logically demonstrated the existence of a happy eternity as a reward for those who keep the commandments of Christ and that it is not for this consoling hope, said the speaker, life in many cases would not be worth living. But with this inspiring promise of Christ and the promise of life clear, we are enabled to bear the crosses of this life with fortitude, confident of gaining the heavenly life which is the reward of the faithful. The Children of Mary sodality went to communion in a body at one of the early masses at the Sacred Heart church yesterday.

BOSTON FLIER MISSING AFTER BIG AIR RAID

PARIS, Aug. 20.—The Lafayette squadron, composed of American aviators, played its part in the French air raids reported in the official communication on Saturday when it was announced that 25,000 pounds of bombs and explosives had been dropped on German military establishments, railroad stations and encampments.

Corp. Harold Willis of Boston, a member of the squadron, has not returned from the raid, which resulted in a number of aerial fights with the Germans.

Two groups of chasers were chosen from the ranks of the Lafayette squadron, commanded respectively by Lieut. Raoul Lufbery of Wallingford, Conn., and Adj. Didier Masson of San Francisco, which were directed to the right and left of the bombing machine as it entered enemy territory. Another group from another squadron followed in the rear.

The groups, however, saw few German machines. The Lufbery command got most of the action and Aviator John McVay and Miss Agnes Murray, a narrow escape when two Germans attacked him with incendiary bullets. He escaped, however, with one bullet hole through a lever plane by outmaneuvering his opponents. He is believed to have brought down one German.

Adj. Masson's command was attacked by a patrol of three planes, which was easily repulsed.

Corp. Willis was missing when his group returned to its base after the raid, but it is hoped that he will turn up.

W. A. Courtney Campbell, Jr., of Kentworth, Ill., who two months ago won the whole wing of his machine in the mid-air, and yet managed to return to his own lines safely, was again the victim of a peculiar accident. Just as he was about to land, the engine of his plane, a heavy bombing machine, balked and landed squarely on top of his light chasing machine, saw the danger in time and scrambled out to safety. His plane was set squarely in two.

RAYNES' JEWELRY STORE REOPENED

On Saturday last Harry Raynes reopened his jewelry store in temporary quarters at 185 Central street. The business was established in 1881, when on July 3rd of that year Mr. Raynes' father, Joseph Raynes, opened a store the second door from Market street. There he continued in business until the Tyler block was built in 1885, when he moved into temporary quarters at 17 Central street, during the time required for the construction of the building. Then he returned to what was 43 Central street, under the old numbering, but is now number 99. At the location the business progressed until the recent removal.

The temporary store has all the fittings necessary for a jewelry store, including mahogany showcases and suitable furnishings.

CHURCH MUST INCITE JUST WARS

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—"It is the duty of the church, in the name of the Lord, to encourage nations, and sometimes even incite them to wars for righteousness instead of urging them to peace when there is and can be no peace until the conditions are changed," said the Rev. H. Clinton May in the Church of the New Jerusalem, yesterday.

"If the Lord permits such wars in order that men and nations may work out their evils, see their dreadful nature and consequences, and be led to repentance and salvation at least in the external plane of order—surely it is not for the church to ignore the Master's purpose," he said. "Certainly it is not for her in weariness to urge peace by a surrender of what is right."

"By in every plane, natural and spiritual, must be fought against valiantly until it is conquering subduing and controlled. When the Turk massacred the Armenians mercilessly a few years ago and treated their women shamefully, it was wicked for the Christian nations not to rise up, arms and stop it. But we understand better now, the evils in the Christian nations which prevented it."

SIXTH INFANTRY WILL LOSE ITS COLONEL

CAMP DEVENS, Aug. 20.—That the Sixth Infantry is soon to lose its identity and be merged with other regiments that will make up the 26th division was indicated in orders received yesterday.

Col. Warren B. Sweetser will command the train and military police department of the division. Two companies of 300 picked men who are 5 feet, 9 inches or more tall, will form the nucleus of the train and military police. They will be mounted and will be trained at the Westfield camp.

With Col. Sweetser leaving the regimental adjutant, Capt. Philip L. Schuyler, Maj. William H. Dorn, Capt. Arthur N. Payne, Lieut. James E. Coburn, Lieut. Harry G. Sheldon, Lieut. Edgar Y. Hawkes, Lieut. Geo. O. Parker and Battalion Adj. Lieut. Charles E. Akeley.

Lieut. George Prescott of Co. M, who has been attached to the supply company, and Lieut. Harry Rogers of Co. N have also been ordered to report to Brig. Gen. Cole at Westfield.

With Col. Sweetser leaving the regiment, Lieut. Col. Herbert W. Dorn will command and Capt. William Pond of Co. I will be made regimental adjutant.

It is expected that there will be more privates taken from the old battalion, as the men are taller than in the other battalions. Co. M, with the departure of Capt. Dorn, will be stripped of all its officers. It was reported last night that Capt. Harry Lowell of the machine gun company may be given command of Co. L.

Lieut. Mansfield, it is expected, will be placed in command of Co. I. It was reported yesterday that Capt. H. H. Wheelock of the supply company had also been ordered to move, but his destination was not made public.

Some of the officers to be on Col. Sweetser's staff will report today at Westfield and make preparations for the coming of the troops.

The boys throughout camp last night were singing that song which has become a favorite at the camp, "Where Do We Go from Here, Boy!" and they are all figuring that it will not be long before they are in France.

Yesterday was a holiday, with the exception of evening dress parade at 8 o'clock. More than 15,000 persons visited the camp during the day and it was late last night before the cars could furnish transportation to take them home.

BOSTON STORE ROBBED BY YEGGMEN

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—For the first time in more than a year yeggmen are busy in Boston, having jimmyed a safe in the office of the W. W. Willson shoe store at 383 Washington street Saturday night and stole $500.

Talroimaster Jim Sheehan of the City Hall avenue station discovered the front door at 383 Washington street open as he was making his rounds about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. He found that some time after 10:45 Saturday night burglars had made their way to the office of the shoe store and opened the safe.

It is thought the thieves entered by concealing themselves in the building before closing time, jimmying an iron and a wooden door. The safe was laid on its back. An sizer who used to bore a hole in a corner of the door. Through this a large jimmy was inserted and the door pried off.

The thieves left behind them a couple of pairs of cotton gloves and their jimmy; not to mention some very important finger prints, through which the police see no confidence of tracing them.

As soon as the affair was reported to headquarters Detective Donovan and Inspector Gustafson were sent to the scene by Chief Inspector John McGarr. Gustafson, who is the identification expert, went to work at once on the finger prints.

The office is wired with burglar alarms which leads the police to believe that the cracksmen had a thorough knowledge of the building.

PRIVATE DALEY DEAD IN AUTO CRASH

LINCOLN, Aug. 20.—One young man was fatally injured and died several hours later, another was slightly injured and three others were shaken up yesterday morning when the automobile in which they were riding along the Weyland road in South Lincoln crashed into a telephone pole.

The dead man is Priv. Warren B. Daley, 18 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Daley of 133 Central street, Auburndale, a member of Battery B, 1st regiment, field artillery, M.N.G.

The injured man is: Cornelius P. Leary of 31 Bond street, Somerville, who was cut by flying glass from the broken windshield.

The machine in the fatal accident is owned by 32 Blaisdell of 22 Wind- road, Brookline, and was driven by Arthur J. Ward of the same address. The other two men in the machine were Thomas Ryan of Framingham street and Edward Conroy of 21 Orris street, both of Auburndale. These last three escaped with only a shaking up.

Ward was arrested by Officer John J. Keather of the Lincoln police, following Priv. Daley's death, on the technical charge of manslaughter. He was later held at the Lexington police station, being held in $2500 surety.

YOUNG MAN DROWNED IN HULL BAY

HULL, Aug. 20.—Saturday evening at 6 o'clock Joseph Russell, a clerk in the New England Trust company, Boston, was drowned off Sheep Island, Hull Bay.

Russell with a number of other clerks was out for a sail in the "Hobomoke," a sloop owned by James Hooper, president of the trust company, who allows the clerks the use of his boat every Saturday afternoon. They had been sailing since 3 o'clock and when off Sheep Island Russell, who was a clerk in the trust company, saw three men in the tender and ordered them back on the sloop. Two of them did, but Russell remained in the tender and went up into the howl. Just as he had Captain James brought his boat about and the tender, weighted down at the bow, shipped water and turned over.

Russell fell overboard and when he came to the surface attempted to take his sweater off so as to swim to the boat. In the meantime Captain James had kept his boat in the wind and was going towards Russell. His arms became tangled and he sank.

Eliot Mitchell of James avenue, Hull, saw him go down and immediately dived overboard after him, but could not reach him in time.

Joseph Russell was about 22 years old and lived in Medford. He is survived by his mother and one brother, Eliot. He had been with the Trust company nearly five years.

PLANS TO GREET THE RUSSIANS

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—Arrangements for the entertainment by the state and city of Boston of the Russian war mission, headed by Ambassador Boris A. Bakmeteff, in this city tomorrow, were completed at the mayor's office last evening by Mayor Curley and the official committee.

Earlier in the day the question of whether Grand Army tradition should be broken to allow the Russian mission to take part in the encampment parade was settled at a conference at the Hotel Vendome. It was decided that the Russian war mission, escorted by Russian soldiers and possibly by other bodies, will start over the route 5 minutes before the Grand Army parade begins and will then be given an opportunity to review the veterans in the grandstand on the common and the veterans will have a chance to see the mission members.

According to schedule, the veterans will start at 10 o'clock. The parade was attended by Mayor Curley, Commander-in-Chief W. J. Patterson of the G.A.R., Col. J. Payson Bradley, chief marshal of the parade; Joseph A. Conry, Russian consul and the city's reception committee. Col. Bradley gave out the decision, acting for both the Grand Army and the mayor. The Russians, Col. Bradley said, will be invited to review the parade along with the commander-in-chief and other dignitaries.

This arrangement, Col. Bradley says, has for its object, giving the people along the line of march an opportunity to see both the Russian and the City war veterans parading at a national encampment in Boston, probably for the last time.

Triumph Ceremonies Mayor Curley has sent 10,000 letters to friends of the new Russian republic in Boston, inviting them to attend the ceremonies at the Trianon of the G.A.R. upon Tremont street mall, Boston common, Tuesday evening at 8 when Ambassador Bakmeteff will deliver a most important message relative to the intent and purpose of the administration of the new republic in behalf of those who are virtually interested in its future.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise of New York, who will be the orator, has prepared a noteworthy address, and of especial interest will be the greeting extended to citizens of Boston by Hon. Al. Sweeney, minister of foreign affairs; Professor Borodin of the department of agriculture and General Roop, one of Russia's most distinguished leaders in the present war.

G. A. R. ORATOR SCORES THE PACIFISTS

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—An audience which filled the Old South church yesterday afternoon at the opening exercises of Grand Army week applauded when Corp. James Tanager of New York, G.A.R. orator, arraigned the pacifists, anarchists and I won't Workers; recommended "the firing squad for all traitors," spoke of the Civil war as a boys' war in discussing whether married men shall be allowed and we paid a tribute to the heroism of the boys in blue who made the sentences, cracking and unlike gunfire, stirred his hearers to ignore the custom of church attendance.

Following bits of applause came when he said justice would be done if God seized the Kaiser, the Austrian leaders and their hordes, and thrust them into "the most orthodox hell ever portrayed in the pulpit."

Insistent Applause Handclapping broke out again as he compared the LaFollettes and Vardamans of our day with the Brights and Yallahs of the 1860s. He said that he closed with the heroic utterance, "I will put a million men over there, and if necessary, we'll send 6,000,000." The most persistent interruption came when he said he regretted that Teddy had not been allowed to lead a volunteer army.

Corp. Tanager said he was not criticizing President Wilson, who he praised as a sincere, devoted leader and declared that the G.A.R. motto is "Stand By the President." The speaker went further and denounced those who are doubting the president's motives and decrying his methods. This, too, brought applause.

Aside from the mere presence in the church at one of the last National gatherings of Civil war veterans, men who hobbled down the aisles on canes, some of them, or were assisted to their seats, the distinctive feature was the stern, solemn, even martial note of the songs of the quartet, the hymns and the prayers of Rev. William H. Butler.

RESERVE OFFICERS AT HARVARD

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—Nearly the full quota of reserve officers assigned to the special training camp at Harvard arrived at Cambridge yesterday to take up their quarters in the freshman dormitory barracks. This morning the 600 officers will report to Capt. Ewing W. Hamlen, U.S.A., the commandant of the camp, and the rest of the day will be spent in the organization of platoons and companies.

The cream of the recent graduates of the government's training camps have come to Harvard for the finishing touches to their military education. They will come under the direction of Col. Paul Azan and the French officers, and in the coming three weeks will learn the fundamental principles of trench warfare. The new network of trenches, built under the supervision of the French mission at Fresh pond, will be used for practical demonstration purposes and maneuvers.

It is expected that this group of 600 officers will be among the first holding reserve commissions to see actual fighting in France. They will finish their three weeks' course at Harvard about the time the draft army is being assembled, and they will forthwith be assigned to posts with troops that will be among the first to depart for France.

The work that the men will do at Cambridge and at the Fresh pond trenches will be similar to what is planned for thousands of other commissioned officers after they arrive in France.

MARRIED MEN IN DRAFT

It appears that even with some exemption boards there is a tendency to make very harsh decisions against married men with families. Apart from the hardship of tearing a husband and father from his family, it is not fair to leave his family dependent upon relatives for support. As things go nowadays people of ordinary circumstances have enough to do to support themselves without being made responsible for the support of others, even if these happen to be the wives or children of brothers, sons or cousins drafted to the war. Besides, the father who will have to go to the front knowing that his family is dependent upon relatives, cannot feel that his loved ones will be properly cared for. This matter of throwing the support of wife and children upon the relatives while the husband and father goes to the trenches is not justified at present. It might be necessary if we were raising our second million men.

It is gratifying to note that high authorities from President Wilson down are opposed to any such policy. The president says married men with families dependent upon them for support should not be drafted, yet some exemption boards pursue a different policy.

Speaking on this very matter Director of the Draft Conklin of New York said:

"It is not the government's intention to take men whose wives would be forced to work for their living if their husbands went to war. That is neither the spirit nor the letter of the law. The real aim is to see that the man whose wife has no dependent means, or whose income will continue in sufficient proportion to support the wife in his absence, does his duty."

Judge Cohen, chairman of the joint district boards committee of this state, discussing the same question said:

"What the law says is not that all men having dependents should be exempt, but that only those are exempt who are in a status with respect to persons dependent on them for support which renders their exclusion or discharge desirable."

"For instance, suppose a man is married and his wife is incapable of earning her own living and has no separate means or property. The man, however, is possessed of much wealth, and, although he is drafted, his wife will be liberally supplied with all the luxuries of life during his absence. No such man should be exempt."

These interpretations of the law are very different from those of the boards that conjured up the idea that if a man having a family earns $18 per week or less he should be drafted as his earnings will net that sum for his family. Is there any certainty that in such a case the family would get the money earned by the husband during service in the army?

If the family failed to receive this money who would support it? If the head of the family were killed his pay would stop and the scheme of this zealous exemption board would make the family of such a soldier a charge on his town or city.

The exemption board in Boston that made up its quota without drafting a single married man has shown good judgment. The district covers the congested portion of the North End and is made up mostly of poor people with large families. To take away the husband of any such family would not only leave the children in many cases dependent upon charity, but would cause them to be scattered and to grow up without the care, direction and discipline which a father is expected to exercise for the benefit of his family. The mere consideration of support in such cases is not the only one that should engage the attention of exemption boards.

AS TO PUBLIC BATHS

The waterways commission is agitating for a bathhouse on the banks of the river where the present swimming pools are located. There can be no doubt that a bath house at that point would be very serviceable; but the waterways board should not attempt to dictate the location or even the style of the bath house. The municipal council should have something to say in reference to the general features of the plan. Moreover a bath house on the boulevard would not conveniently accommodate the people of other parts of the city. There can be no question as to the need of a public bath system, but all parts of the city should be equally provided for. How this can be done is not a very difficult matter to solve. The chief consideration is, how the money will be spared by the city government which will have many expensive projects demanding attention during the next few years. The great need of the community is for open swimming pools in the summer and public bath houses in the other seasons. These need not necessarily be near the river, but they should be conveniently accessible from every part of the city.

THE UNEARNED INCREMENT

Henry Astor, over 85, sole surviving son of William B. Astor, one of the founders of the Astor fortune, is one of the best examples extant of what economists call "the unearned increment."

Henry Astor never did anything much to earn an increment, or anything else. He didn't even please his millionaire father. When he married the daughter of his father's gardener he was disinherited. And for years he has been living in obscurity on a farm.

But if you must be cut off with a pittance, persuade your father to make it a pittance of land.

When William Astor, in 1834, created a trust of real estate for his son he thought he was assuring him only enough to live on comfortably. But this is 1917. And today, and for some scores of years back, the income has been that of a prince.

If anything is indestructible it is old mother earth. Also—nothing, not even money, grows unless it has its roots in the soil.

INTERN THE ENEMY ALIENS

It is high time the government should open an internment camp for the alien enemies and their paid agents who are conducting an active campaign all over this country against every step taken by the government in the prosecution of the war.

Since the opening of the war the Germans have made use of a certain shouting and purchasable element in this country to do what they themselves could not do openly. Thus they secure writers, agitators and bomb plotters to assail the government, to oppose the draft law, to denounce the Allies, to foment strikes, to blow up munition factories and plant bombs in ships carrying food or supplies to the Allies. There are so many of these men in the country masquerading under different guises that it will be difficult to get them all, but the government should bag them as quickly as possible so that their opposition to the military operations may be overcome.

It appears that jitney drivers and their patrons have been so crowding the sidewalk leading to the comfort stations on Paige street that the public is interfered with in its free access to these conveniences. It is understood that but two jitneys are authorized to stop at that part of Paige street at any one time. It would seem that this is a matter calling for the attention of the police department.

With Germans poisoning our court plaster and our wells, we are getting a first class slant at kultur without going out of our own back yard for it.

VISITORS AT BOXFORD CAMP YESTERDAY

CAMP CURTIS HILD, Boxford, Aug. 20.—Thousands of visitors thronged the artillery camp here yesterday and practically the entire day was given over to their entertainment.

The three Rhode Island batteries arrived in camp Saturday night and are quartered at the westerly end of the camp. The three units, with the two units from Connecticut and one from New Hampshire make up the 3d regiment and complete the brigade. Lieut. Col. Hale has been assigned the temporary command of the 3d regiment and the headquarters, the supply companies, ambulance, signal and engineering corps are being organized, so that the entire machinery will be complete within a short time.

All drills and ceremonies were omitted yesterday with the exception of the regimental guard mount yesterday afternoon at 6:30.

Complaints are being received on account of the liberties taken by some of the visitors, and it is probable that some of the privileges may be revoked. At the religious service yesterday forenoon a woman disturbed the service by insisting on taking a picture. The camera was confiscated by orders from headquarters, but was later returned, accompanied by a severe reprimand.

The 1st Regiment band gave a concert during the first of the afternoon, followed by the 2d Regiment band later, both attracting large crowds.

Col. John H. Sherburne, commander of the 1st Massachusetts Artillery regiment, announced yesterday a gift of $300 from the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, the sum to be used for the care and comfort of the horses of the regiment.

The gift will be used, Col. Sherburne said, for the erection of a shelter for the horses, which are now compelled to remain on picket lines without adequate protection.

LOWELL MAN DROWNED IN KNOPP'S POND

Frederick H. Livingston, aged 35 years and residing at 22 Liberty street, was drowned yesterday afternoon at Johnson's camp, Knopp's pond, near the Bridge Hill place, about two and one-half miles from Groton. Livingston was in bathing and went beyond his depth and before any one could reach him he sank below the surface.

Livingston was employed as a freight conductor on the Boston and Maine railroad and besides his wife, Teresa Eliza Livingston, he leaves one daughter, Teresa; three sons, Herbert, Mr. Edmund W. and John A., two brothers, George Livingston and Howard Willoughby, and two sisters, Mrs. Maud Danforth and Mrs. Howard Sprague, both of Lynn. The body was recovered and removed to the rooms of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons in this city. Later it was taken to his home.

BILLERICA MAN STRUCK BY ELECTRIC CAR NEAR SPRAGUE'S BRIDGE

Peter Gofek of Billerica was struck by a Lowell-bound electric car near Sprague's bridge in Billerica, late yesterday afternoon, and sustained bruises about the body. He was placed in an automobile belonging to M. H. Garrity of Cambridge and removed to St. John's hospital in this city, where it was found he was suffering from lacerations of the lip, forehead and left hand and numerous body bruises. No internal injuries were noted at the hospital.

MAY INCLUDE METAL WORKERS IN STRIKE

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Labor leaders in charge of the strike in shipyards of the New York district today, asserted that 20,000 metal workers in various parts of the country would be asked to declare a sympathetic strike unless a settlement is reached today. A meeting of labor leaders to be held in Tammany hall tomorrow is expected to take formal action seeking to extend the strike, it was said.

According to those in charge of the strike, the plans include taking out men all the way from Seattle, Wash., to the Delaware river. Boston, Seattle, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Elizabeth and Norfolk will be affected, they said. The meeting tomorrow will be attended by officials of the International union involved, machinists, blacksmiths, boiler-makers and pattern makers.

Louis Weyand, vice president of the International Brotherhood of Boiler-makers, declared that his union was in the fight either to win or lose everything, and that the men would keep up the struggle as long as the employers did.

Strike leaders said the latest acquisition to their ranks were the mechanics employed by the Standard Shipbuilding company on Shooter's Island, who struck, they said, upon being signalled from a motor boat containing strikers that appeared near the plant.

The strikers and employers are deadlocked over the question of establishing a minimum wage.

CHINA WILL SEND TROOPS TO EUROPE

PEKING, China, Aug. 17.—(Delayed.)—General Chang Chi Yung, commanding troops sent to suppress General Chang Hsueh's forces in Anh-wei province, telegraphed President Feng Kwo Chang urging the immediate sending of his force of 30,000 to Europe to fight the Germans.

Dr. Pauls Reinsch, minister to China, and other ministers of the cabinet, have agreed upon a common note, sent individually to the foreign office, congratulating China on its declaration of war. Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister visited Wang Ta Ichie, foreign minister, and assured him that the declaration of war strengthened the friendship between Japan and China.

China has instituted a cable and mail censorship.

JOHN KOEN INJURED IN TEWKSBURY

John J. Koen, aged 18, of 66 Marion street, Somerville, reported to the Somerville police station yesterday as being missing, was injured by an automobile late yesterday afternoon in Tewksbury, near the Lowell line, as was learned last evening by Lieut. Damery of Somerville.

Assistant Superintendent Dr. Pierce of the state infirmary at Tewksbury telephoned to Lieut. Damery that Koen had thrown himself in front of an automobile and was seriously injured. When questioned from the Lowell line, as was learned last evening by Lieut. Damery of Somerville, Koen, the Somerville police heard, replied that he did not want to live any longer.

Koen left home shortly after 5 Saturday night to go to church and later visit a Somerville physician. He failed to do either. He had only 25 cents when he left home. Upon his failure to return yesterday morning his father, Daniel, reported his disappearance to the police.

Good Health Not Found in Powder

The Plant Juice Man, at Dow's Drug Store, Tells the True Secrets of Health.

As health talks to women become more frequent both on the platform and in the newspapers, the mass of women are beginning to realize what the more cultivated have always known, namely that good health cannot be found in the powder box or rouge pot. True, the externals of health may be found in that manner, but the basis of health lies deeper, and is just as easily obtained. Many remedies may be found, but the best, in the opinion of most women, is Plant Juice, the new natural stomach remedy—nature's own powerful preparation. Thousands of women have been restored to health by the use of this wonderful medicine, as their numerous testimonials show.

One of the latest is that of Mrs. Peter Braut, who resides at No. 129 E. Merrimack St., a well known resident of Lowell, who has hosts of friends and acquaintances. She gave the following:

"I have been troubled with my stomach for the past four years and all the food that I could eat, I could not sleep at night on account of the pain, and felt at times as if I were going to die; I had no appetite whatever and could not eat the lightest kind of food; I was badly constipated, had headaches, was weak and completely run down; I was very nervous; I had read so much about Plant Juice that I decided I would try it. Now I am happy to say that I am feeling fine; I sleep well and have a fine appetite; the results have been simply marvelous in my case and I am glad to recommend this medicine to others. I cannot be too thankful for my recovery to health."

There are numerous symptoms of this trouble that Plant Juice can relieve. In fact any one of the following may denote affections of the stomach: indigestion, dyspepsia, bad breath, sick, throbbing headaches, poor circulation, night sweats, that tired feeling, costiveness, a coated tongue or a poor complexion.

The Plant Juice Man is at Dow's, The Drug Store, in Merrimack Square, Lowell, where he is daily meeting the local public, and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

FISHING VESSEL SAFE

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 20.—Captain John G. Murley of the fishing schooner Helen Murley reported here today that he sighted the fishing vessel Rella off Cape Cod the day after the severe gale and that he believed he had received her from either the Yiting or the Alice Stetson.

Fears had been felt here for the Rella and her crew of seven men. The Rella is believed not to have been badly damaged and to have gone ashore fishing.

KEEP HIM THERE!

The Stenger test depends upon the following principle: Two tuning forks of exactly the same size, pitch and amplitude are set in vibration; one of the forks is held an inch away from the right ear. When the other fork is brought up to the left ear the fork at the right ear is no longer heard by a person who has about the same degree of auditory acuity in both ears. To test a recruit who says he is deaf in his left ear set the forks vibrating by striking one against the other. Hold one fork in front of the right ear. It is heard. Then bring up the other fork toward the left ear and ask if the fork at the right ear is still heard. If it is not, then the left ear is functioning; if it is heard the left ear is not functioning. In a normal case the sound of the vibrating fork will not be heard by the right when the left fork is approximately, or vice versa, as has been explained.

The continuity of two deaf ears does not often present itself with an evidence for there is always plenty of evidence from friends or acquaintances that the examined man heard before coming up for examination. A satisfactory test in such cases is to line up the milliner with a number of other recruits known to possess good hearing, and when their undivided attention is obtained, say in an ordinary voice, "All those who are deaf will now be excused from service." Taken off his guard, the milliner will then say, "Do you expect that your brother will be exempted too?" In his anxiety, the candidate

BROKER ROSENBAACH IN BELLEVUE

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Arthur Rosenbach, who said he is a broker living at No. 122 Cathedral parkway, was taken from the Hotel Astor yesterday afternoon and placed under observation in the psychiatric ward of Bellevue hospital.

Rosenbach registered at the hotel early yesterday and went to bed. Shortly after noon he called for a bell-boy. He sent the boy for a barber. The barber for a manicurist, the manicurist for a masseur and the masseur for a doctor. When all reported that they were given no business, the hotel management decided Rosenbach needed a physician.

Dr. Samuel Moore of No. 445 West End avenue advised that Rosenbach be taken to Bellevue. On the way to the hospital he told the physician he has "large sums of money" that he "intends to purchase a million horses for the allies" and that he has "invented the motor tube for auto tops, which will run for thousands of miles."

At the hospital two bank books were found in Rosenbach's clothes. One found in a pocket of $45,000 in the Harman National bank and the other a deposit of $20,000 in the Greenwich bank. Both were dated Aug. 18.

Rosenbach said he lived with his brother William, at No. 112 Cathedral parkway. The brother was not in, but a maid denied that Arthur Rosenbach lived there. William Rosenbach is foreign manager for the brokerage firm of Dominick & Dominick, No. 115 Broadway.

DRAFT MALINGERERS GET BADLY MIXED

Not one in 100 of the many draft "malingers" who have made their appearance before the various exemption boards probably have given anything like a serious thought to the fact that most of their deceptive acts are easy to detect. Physicians are not more who resort to subterfuge in their eagerness to evade military service for their country.

As the New York Medical Journal points out, "Malingering is simply a condition of mind, and it is quite easy to tell from nervous strain, the highly exalted mental state, the effects of a general malady, or the effects of a specific disease, just what is going on within. Moreover, men who have always enjoyed a good measure of health go suddenly and completely out of their minds with a grain of experience will recognize at once that the alleged symptoms are undoubtedly tricked by false professions of bad hearing that by any other method of deceit attempted by the draft 'duckers'.

The hearing tests are especially important, for it might prove nothing short of a calamity to admit a man in service who misunderstood the commands. Government requirements of at least 50 per cent hearing are exacting. To everyone concerned no one who cannot hear a whisper in a quiet room at 10 feet should be accepted. That is a minimum which protects the soldier in the limit the battlefield becomes a much more dangerous place than it really is for the normal man.

In the examination of men claiming exemption from military service it becomes very important to know the exact degree of hearing in the ears. Many will claim deafness when in fact the hearing is practically normal, and unless the examiner is very astute, a candidate fitted with a fair degree of hearing will be rejected, although physically fit in every other respect. In Australia there are, or rather were, a great many requests for exemption from military service because of partial or absolute deafness, and it therefore came as a surprise when the sound of the machine from those actually unfit was applied were the Stenger test and the resulting test.

The Stenger test depends upon the following principle: Two tuning forks of exactly the same size, pitch and amplitude are set in vibration; one of the forks is held an inch away from the right ear. When the other fork is brought up to the left ear the fork at the right ear is no longer heard by a person who has about the same degree of auditory acuity in both ears. GERMANS ACCUSED OF CASE OF SUICIDE SAYS

PEST ATROCITY DR. SMITH

Dr. Thomas B. Smith, medical examiner, has uncovered some interesting information in connection with the finding of a skeleton at the property numbered 5 and 7 Little street. As related in Saturday's Sun, the skeleton of an adult person about 30 years of age was unearthed by workmen engaged in removing a cellar wall at this point and nearby were found pieces of casket wood and bits of cloth thought to be either fragments of the person's clothing or else part of the casket cloth.

Dr. Smith has found out that the person which has stood on this site for 75 years but which is now in the process of being demolished to be replaced by modern buildings, was used by one John Dyer from 1856 until 1900. Examination of the skull has disclosed several bullet holes in the bones of the skeleton two on the right side and one on the left. This would give proof to the theory that the left side had been the entering place of the bullets and that one had lodged in the person's body. There was also a hole in the skull. Both discoveries would lead to the belief that suicide had been committed. The investigation will undoubtedly be continued.

POPE'S PEACE PROPOSAL LONDON, Aug. 20.—Lord Robert Cecil, minister of foreign affairs, and under-secretary for foreign affairs, announced in the house of commons this afternoon that the entente allied governments would hold a conference before a reply to the pope's peace proposals would be sent to the Vatican.

Under the direction of Lieut. Baron von Hadelin, art historian attached to German headquarters, the cathedral was stripped of its stained glass, the choir transept, the gothic rose windows and statues.

The first lights of the fire that destroyed the cathedral were seen at 7 p. m. Aug. 18, and appeared to have come from the bell tower. At 8 a. m. the next day, the bells, turrets and entire roof were gone.

The announcement concludes with the statement that "if the Germans cast on us the imputed accusation of having committed a heinous crime or national patrimony, it is because they wish to justify their destructions at Rheims, Soissons, Ypres and Arras."

Mr. Goldwater and his wife, who were going to seek adventure at Hudson, N. Y.

SIXTH INFANTRY WILL LOSE ITS COLONEL

CAMP DEVENS, Aug. 20.—That the Sixth Infantry is soon to lose its identity and be merged with other regiments that will make up the 26th division was indicated in orders received yesterday.

Col. Warren E. Sweetser will command the train and military police department of the division. Two companies of 300 picked men who are 5 feet, 9 inches or more tall, will form the nucleus of the train and military police. They will be mounted and will be trained at the Westfield camp.

With Col. Sweetser leaving the regimental adjutant, Capt. Philip L. Schuyler, Maj. William M. Dolan, Capt. Arthur N. Payne, Lieut. James F. Curnutt, Lieut. Harry G. Shelton, Lieut. Edgar V. Hawken, Lieut. Geo. O. Parker and Battalion Adj. Lieut. Charles E. Akeley.

Lieut. George Prescott of Co. M, who has been attached to the supply company, and Lieut. Harry Rogers of Co. M have also been ordered to report to Brig. Gen. Cole at Westfield. With Col. Sweetser leaving the regiment, Lieut. Col. Herbert W. Damon will command and Capt. William Pond of Co. I will be made regimental adjutant.

It is expected that there will be more privates taken from the 3d battalion, as the men are taller than in the other battalions. Co. M, with the departure of Capt. Dea, Lieut. Rogers and Lieut. Prescott, will be stripped of all its officers. It was reported last night that Capt. Harry Lowell of the machine gun company may be given command of Co. M.

Lieut. Mansfield, it is expected, will be placed in command of Co. I. It was reported yesterday that Capt. H. H. Wheelock of the supply company had also been ordered to report, but his destination was not made public.

Some of the officers to be in Col. Sweetser's staff will report today at Westfield and make preparations for the coming of the troops.

The boys throughout camp last night were singing that song which has become a favorite at the camp, "Where Do We Go from Here, Boys?" and they are all agreeing that it will not be long before they are in France.

Yesterday was a holiday, with a procession of exciting, three parades at 5.30 o'clock. More than 15,000 persons visited the camp during the day and it was late last night before the cars could furnish transportation to take them home.

BOSTON STORE ROBBED BY YEGGMEN

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—For the first time in more than a year yeggmen are busy in Boston, having jimmied a safe in the office of the W. W. Wilson shoe store at 338 Washington street Saturday night and stole $500.

Patrolman Tim Sheehan of the City Hall avenue station discovered the front door at 338 Washington street open as he was making his rounds about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. He found that some time after 10.45 Saturday night burglars had made their way to the office of the shoe store and opened the safe.

It is thought the thieves entered by concealing themselves in the building before closing time, jimmied an iron and a wooden door. The safe was laid on its back. An auger was used to bore a hole in a corner of the door. Through this a large jimmy was inserted and the door pried off.

The thieves left behind them a couple of pairs of cotton gloves and their jimmies, not to mention some very important finger prints, through which the police see meekness of tracing them.

As soon as the affair was reported to headquarters Detective Donovan and Inspector Gustafson were sent to the scene by Chief Inspector John McGarr. Gustafson, who is the identification expert, went to work at once on the finger prints.

The office is wired with burglar alarms which leads the police to believe that the cracksmen had a thorough knowledge of the building.

PRIVATE DALEY DEAD IN AUTO CRASH

LINCOLN, Aug. 20.—One young man was fatally injured and died several hours later, another was slightly injured and three others were shaken up yesterday morning when the automobile in which they were riding along the Wayland road in South Lincoln crashed into a telephone pole.

The dead man is: Priv. Warren K. Daley, 18 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Daley of 138 Central street, Auburndale, a member of Battery B, 1st regiment, field artillery, M.N.G.

The injured man is: Cornelius P. Lacey of 28 Bond street, Somerville, who was cut by flying glass from the broken windshield.

The machine in the fatal accident is owned by J. D. Blaisdell of 22 Windsor road, Brookline, and was driven by Arthur J. Ward of the same address. The other two men in the machine were Thomas Ryan of Freeman street and Edward Conroy of 21 Orris street, both of Auburndale. These three escaped with only a shaking up.

Ward was arrested by Officer John J. Kallher of the Lincoln police, following Priv. Daley's death, on the charge of negligent manslaughter. He was later bailed at the Lexington police station, being held in $2500 surety.

YOUNG MAN DROWNED IN HULL BAY

HULL, Aug. 20.—Saturday evening at 6 o'clock Joseph Russell, a clerk in the New England Trust company, Boston, was drowned off Sheep Island, Hull.

Pay. Russell with a number of other clerks was out for a sail in the "Hoboken," a sloop owned by James Hooper, president of the trust company, who allows the clerks the use of his boat every Saturday afternoon. They had been sailing since 3 o'clock and when off Sheep Island Russell with two others got into the tender of the sloop. Reiner James, captain of the boat, saw the three men in the tender and ordered them back into the sloop. One of the did, but Russell remained in the tender and went up into the bow. Just as he did Captain James brought his boat about and the tender, weighted down at the bow, shipped water and turned over.

Russell fell overboard and when he came to the surface attempted to take his sweater off so as to swim to the boat. In the meantime Captain James had kept his boat in the wind and was going towards Russell. While Russell was taking off his sweater his arms became tangled and he sank.

Elliot Mitchell of James avenue, Hull, saw him go down and immediately gave overboard after him, but could not reach him in time.

Joseph Russell was about 23 years old and lived in Medford. He is survived by his mother and one sister, Ralph. He had been with the Trust company nearly five years.

PLANS TO GREET THE RUSSIANS

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—Arrangements for the entertainment by the state and city of Boston of the Russian war mission, headed by Ambassador Boris Bakich, met in this city tomorrow, were completed at the mayor's office last evening by Mayor Curley and the official committees.

Earlier in the day the question of whether Grand Army tradition should be broken to allow the Russian mission to take part in the celebration of the centennial of the city of Boston was settled at a conference at the Hotel Vendome. It was decided that the Russian war mission, escorted by Russian sailors and possibly by other bodies, will start over the route 5 minutes before the Grand Army parade begins and will then be given an opportunity to review the veterans from the grandstand on the common and the veterans will have a chance to see the mission members.

According to schedule, the veterans will start at 10 o'clock. The conference was attended by Mayor Curley, Commander-in-Chief W. J. Patterson of the G.A.R.; Col. J. Payson Bradley, chief marshal of the parade; Joseph A. Conner, Russian consul and the city's reception committee. Col. Bradley gave out the decision, acting for both the Grand Army and the mayor. The Russians, Col. Bradley said, will be invited to review the parade along with the commander-in-chief and other dignitaries.

This arrangement, Col. Bradley says, has for its object, giving the people along the line of march an opportunity to see both the Russian and the Civil war veterans parading at a national encampment in Boston, probably for the last time.

Trianon Ceremonies Mayor Curley has sent 10,000 letters to friends of the new Russian republic in Boston, inviting them to attend the ceremonies at the Trianon of the G.A.R. upon Tremont street mall, Boston common, Tuesday evening at 8 when Ambassador Bakich will deliver a message of welcome to the Russian republic and the city's reception committee. Col. Bradley gave out the decision, acting for both the Grand Army and the mayor. The Russians, Col. Bradley said, will be invited to review the parade along with the commander-in-chief and other dignitaries.

G. A. R. ORATOR SCORES THE PACIFISTS

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—An audience which filled the Old South church yesterday afternoon at the opening exercises of Grand Army week applauded when Corp. James Tannor of New York, G.A.R. orator, arraigned "the pacifists, anarchists and I won't workers" recommended "the firing squad for all traitors," spoke of the Civil war as a boys' war in discussing whether married men should be put to death and was particularly demonstrative when he declared that if the president had "let Roosevelt out loose" there would be something doing now without much drafting.

Many times after the white haired man who gave both legs for his country was escorted and escorted to the public to fire the opening gun of the last campaign the boys in blue will make his sentences, cracking not unlike gunfire, stirred his hearers. Volleys of bits of applause came when he said justice would be done if God seized the Kaiser, the Austrian leaders and their hordes and thrust them into "the most orthodox hell ever portrayed in the pulpit."

Insistent Applause Handclapping broke out again as he compared the Lafayette and Vandeput of our day with the Brille and Vandeput of the 18th century and when he closed with the heroic utterance, "We'll put a million men over there, and if necessary, we'll send them over there, the most insistent and the longest continued interruption came when he said he regretted that Teddy had not been allowed to lead a volunteer army overseas.

Corp. Tannor said he was not criticizing President Wilson, who he praised as a sincere, devoted leader and declared that the G.A.R. motto is "Stand By the President." The speaker went further and denounced those who are doubting the president's motives and degrading his methods. This, too, brought applause.

Aside from the more presence in the church at one of the last National gatherings of Civil war veterans, men who hobbled down the aisles on canes, or of them, or were assisted to their seats; the distinctive feature was the stern, solemn, even martial note of the songs of the quartet, the hymns and the prayers of Rev. William H. Butler.

RESERVE OFFICERS AT HARVARD

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—Nearly the full quota of reserve officers assigned to the special training camp at Harvard arrived at Cambridge yesterday to take up their quarters in the freshman dormitory barracks. This morning the 600 officers will report to Capt. Edwin W. Hamlen, U.S.A., the commandant of the camp, and the rest of the day will be spent in the organization of platoons and companies.

The cream of the recent graduates of the government's training camps have come to Harvard for the finishing touches to their military education. They will come under the direction of Col. Paul Azan and the French officers, and in the coming three weeks will learn the fundamental principles of trench warfare. The network of trenches, built under the supervision of the French mission at Fresh pond, will be used for practical demonstration purposes and maneuvers.

The 600 officers, all in new uniforms, make a fine looking group. They have come to Cambridge from 11 of the various government training camps east of the Mississippi river, many of them leaving for the university city as soon as they had received their commissions last week. Yesterday hundreds of them who had never visited in this part of the country before spent the day sightseeing around Boston and Cambridge.

It is expected that this group of 600 officers will be among the first holding reserve commissions to see actual fighting in France. They will finish their three weeks' course at Harvard about the time the draft army is being assembled, and they will forthwith be assigned to posts with troops that will be among the first to depart for France.

The work that the men will do at Cambridge and at the Fresh pond trenches will be similar to what is planned for thousands of other commissioned officers after they arrive in France.

CHANGE C.O.D. PLAN BOSTON, Aug. 20.—Twenty-two large retail stores are about to make a concerted effort to reduce the large number of returns of merchandise sold on the C.O.D. plan. On the first of next month these stores will attempt to effect a rule requiring a deposit on all such purchases.

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY BOSTON, Aug. 20.—The American Chemical society at its annual meeting here next month will consider many advanced theories and formulas for the preservation of by-products and for the saving of munitions. Latest developments in medicinal remedies, disinfectants, dyes and dyestuffs, as brought out by the war, also will be discussed.

MARRIED MEN IN DRAFT

It appears that even with some exemption boards there is a tendency to make very harsh decisions against married men with families. Apart from the hardship of tearing a husband and father from his family, it is not fair to leave his family dependent upon relatives for support. As things go nowadays people of ordinary circumstances have enough to do to support themselves without being made responsible for the support of others, even if these happen to be the wives or children of brothers, sons or cousins drafted to the war. Besides, the father who will have to go to the front knowing that his family is dependent upon relatives, cannot feel that his loved ones will be properly cared for. This matter of throwing the support of wife and children upon the relatives while the husband and father goes to the trenches is not justified at present. It might be necessary if we were raising our second million men.

It is gratifying to note that high authorities from President Wilson down are opposed to any such policy. The president says married men with families dependent upon them for support should not be drafted, yet some exemption boards pursue a different policy.

Speaking on this very matter Director of the Draft Conklin of New York said:

"It is not the government's intention to take men whose wives would be forced to work for their living if their husbands went to war. This is neither the spirit nor the letter of the law. The real aim is to see that the man whose wife has independent means, or whose income will continue in sufficient proportion to support the wife in his absence, does his duty."

Judge Cohen, chairman of the joint district boards committee of this state, discussing the same question said:

"What the law says is not that all men having dependents should be exempt, but that only those are exempt who are in a status with respect to persons dependent on them for support which renders their exclusion or discharge desirable.

"For instance, suppose a man is married and his wife is incapable of earning her own living and has no separate means or property. The man, however, is possessed of much wealth, and, although he is drafted, his wife will be liberally supplied with all the luxuries of life during his absence. No such man should be exempt."

These interpretations of the law are very different from those of the boards that conjured up the idea that if a man having a family earns $18 per week or less he should be drafted as his earnings will not that sum for his family. Is there any certainty that in such a case the family would get the money earned by the husband during service in the army?

If the family failed to receive this money who would support it? If the head of the family were killed his pay would stop and the scheme of this zealous exemption board would make the family of such a soldier a charge on his town or city.

The exemption board in Boston that made up its quota without drafting a single married man has shown good judgment. The district covers the congested portion of the North End and is made up mostly of poor people with large families. To take away the husband of any such family would not only leave the children in many cases dependent upon charity, but would cause them to be scattered and to grow up without the care, direction and discipline which a father is expected to exercise for the benefit of his family. The mere consideration of support in such cases is not the only one that should engage the attention of exemption boards.

AS TO PUBLIC BATHS

The waterways commission is agitating for a bath house on the banks of the river where the present swimming pools are located. There can be no doubt that a bath house at that point would be very serviceable; but the waterways board should not attempt to dictate the location or even the style of the bath house. The municipal council should have something to say in reference to the general features of the plan. Moreover a bath house on the boulevard would not conveniently accommodate the people of other parts of the city. There can be no question as to the need of a public bath system, but all parts of the city should be equally provided for. How this can be done is not a very difficult matter to solve. The chief consideration is, how the money will be spared by the city government which will have many expensive projects demanding attention during the next few years. The great need of the community is for open swimming pools in the summer and public bath houses in the other seasons. These need not necessarily be near the river, but they should be conveniently accessible from every part of the city.

THE UNEARNED INCREMENT

Henry Astor, over 85, sole surviving son of William B. Astor, one of the founders of the Astor fortune, is one of the best examples extant of what economists call "the unearned increment."

Henry Astor never did anything much to earn an increment, or anything else. He didn't even please his millionaire father. When he married the daughter of his father's gardener he was disinherited. And for years he has been living in obscurity on a farm.

But if you must be cut off with a pittance, persuade your father to make it a pittance of land.

When William Astor, in 1834, created a trust of real estate for his son he thought he was assuring him only enough to live on comfortably. But this is 1917. And today, and for some scores of years back, the income has been that of a prince.

If anything is indestructible it is old money. Also—nothing, not even money, grows unless it has its roots in the soil.

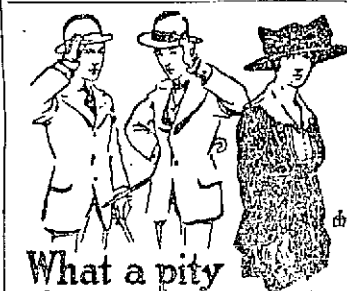

INTERN THE ENEMY ALIENS

It is high time the government should open an internment camp for the alien enemies and their paid agents who are conducting an active campaign all over this country against every step taken by the government in the prosecution of the war.

Since the opening of the war the Germans have made use of a certain shouting and purchasable element in this country to do what they themselves could not do openly. Thus they secure writers, agitators and bomb plotters to assail the government, to oppose the draft law, to denounce the Allies, to foment strikes, to blow up munition factories and plant bombs in ships carrying food or supplies to the Allies. There are so many of these men in the country masquerading under different guises that it will be difficult to get them all, but the government should bag them as quickly as possible so that their opposition to the military operations may be overcome.

It appears that jitney drivers and their patrons have been so crowding the sidewalk leading to the comfort stations on Paige street that the public is interfered with in its free access to these conveniences. It is understood that but two jitneys are authorized to stop at that part of Paige street at any one time. It would seem that this is a matter calling for the attention of the police department.

With Germans poisoning our court plaster and our wells, we are getting a first class slant at kultur without going out of our own back yard for it.

VISITORS AT BOXFORD CAMP YESTERDAY

CAMP CURTIS GUILD, Boxford, Aug. 20.—Thousands of visitors thronged the artillery camp here yesterday and practically the entire day was given over to their entertainment.

The three Rhode Island batteries arrived in camp Saturday night and are quartered at the westerly end of the camp. The three units, with the two units from Connecticut and one from New Hampshire make up the 3d regiment and complete the brigade. Lieut. Col. Hale has been assigned the temporary command of the 3d regiment and the headquarters, the supply companies, ambulance, signal and engineering corps are being organized, so that the entire machinery will be complete within a short time.

All drills and ceremonies were omitted yesterday with the exception of the regimental guard mount yesterday afternoon at 5.30.

Complaints are being received on account of the liberties taken by some of the visitors, and it is probable that some of the privileges may be revoked. At the religious service yesterday forenoon a woman disturbed the service by insisting on taking a picture. The camera was confiscated by orders from headquarters, but was later returned, accompanied by a severe reprimand.

The 1st Regiment band gave a concert during the first of the afternoon, followed by the 2d Regiment band later, both attracting large crowds.

Col. John H. Sherburne, commander of the 1st Massachusetts Artillery regiment, announced yesterday a gift of $200 from the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, the sum to be used for the care and comfort of the horses of the regiment.

The gift will be used, Col. Sherburne said, for the erection of a shelter for the horses, which are now compelled to remain on picket lines without adequate protection.

Frederick H. Livingston, aged 36 years and residing at 22 Liberty street, was drowned yesterday afternoon at Johnson's camp, Knopp's pond, near the Village Hill place, about two and one-half miles from Groton. Livingston was in bathing and went beyond his depth and before any one could reach him he sank below the surface.

Livingston was employed as a freight conductor on the Boston & Maine railroad and besides his wife, Teresa Bligh Livingston, he leaves one daughter, Teresa; three sons, Herbert M., Edmund W. and John A., two brothers, George Livingston and Howard Willoughby, and two sisters, Mrs. Maud Danforth and Mrs. Howard Sprague, both of Lynn. The body was recovered and removed to the rooms of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons in this city. Later it was taken to his home.

BILLERICA MAN STRUCK BY ELECTRIC CAR NEAR SPRAGUE'S BRIDGE

Peter Gudek of Billerica was struck by a Lowell-bound electric car near Sprague's bridge in Billerica, late yesterday afternoon, and sustained bruises about the body. He was placed in an automobile belonging to M. H. Garvey of Cambridge and removed to St. John's hospital in this city, where it was found he was suffering from lacerations of the hip, forehead and left hand and numerous body bruises. No internal injuries were noted at the hospital.

MAY INCLUDE METAL WORKERS IN STRIKE

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Labor leaders in charge of the strike in shipyards of the New York district today, asserted that 20,000 metal workers in various parts of the country would be asked to declare a sympathetic strike unless a settlement is reached today. A meeting of labor leaders to be held in Tammany hall tomorrow is expected to take formal action seeking to extend the strike. It was said, according to those in charge of the strike, the plans include taking out men all the way from Seattle, Wash., to the Delaware river. Boston, Seattle, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Elizabeth and Norfolk will be affected, they said. The meeting tomorrow will be attended by officials of the International union involved, machinists, blacksmiths, boiler-makers and pattern makers.

Louis Woyand, vice president of the International Brotherhood of Boiler-makers, declared that his union was in the fight either to win or lose everything and that the men would keep up the struggle as long as the employers did.

Strike leaders said the latest accord to their ranks were the mechanics employed by the Standard Shipbuilding company on Shooter's Island, who struck, they said, upon being signalled from a motor boat containing strikers that appeared near the plant.

The strikers and employers are deadlocked over the question of establishing a minimum wage.

CHINA WILL SEND TROOPS TO EUROPE

PEKING, China, Aug. 17.—(Delayed.)—General Chang Chi Yam, commanding troops sent to suppress General Chang Hsun's forces in Anhwei province, telegraphed President Feng Kwo Chang urging the immediate sending of his force of 30,000 to Europe to fight the Germans.

Dr. Pauls Reinecke, minister to China, and other ministers of the cabinet, have agreed upon a common note, sent individually to the foreign office, congratulating China on its declaration of war. Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister visited Wang Ta Hsieh, foreign minister, and assured him that the declaration of war strengthened the friendship between Japan and China.

China has instituted a cable and mail censorship.

JOHN KOEN INJURED IN TEWKSBURY

John J. Koen, aged 18, of 66 Marion street, Somerville, reported to the Somerville police station yesterday as being missing, was injured by an automobile late yesterday afternoon in Tewksbury, near the Lowell line, as was learned last evening by Lieut. Damory of Somerville.

Assistant Superintendent Dr. Pierce of the state infirmary at Tewksbury telephoned to Lieut. Damory that Koen had thrown himself in front of an automobile and was seriously injured. When questioned why he threw himself in the path of the machine, Koen, the Somerville police heard, replied that he did not want to live any longer.

Koen left home shortly after 5 Saturday night to go to church and later visit a Somerville physician. He failed to do either. He had only 25 cents when he left home. Upon his failure to return yesterday morning his father, Daniel, reported his disappearance to the police.
